

ROBERT ROACH

Director of Research
Canada West Foundation

Robert Roach has a BA and MA in Political Science from the University of Calgary. Since joining the Canada West Foundation in 1995, Robert has worked on a broad array of public policy topics including the western Canadian economy, social services, western Canadian demographic trends, the nonprofit sector, charitable fundraising, transportation, interprovincial cooperation, natural capital, federalism, water conservation, local government and democratic participation. Robert's research interests include Canadian public policy, western Canadian politics, federalism, intergovernmental relations, quantitative and qualitative survey research, and political philosophy. Robert is the Treasurer and Past President of the Economics Society of Calgary, an Instructor in the University of Alberta/Dalhousie University National Advanced Certificate in Local Authority Administration and was recently chosen as one of Calgary's Top 40 Under 40 by Calgary Inc. Magazine.