

SAM SHAW

President

Northern Alberta Institute of Technology

Dr. Shaw assumed his responsibilities as President of the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT) on October 1, 1997. Today, he leads a team of more than 3,000 staff serving over 72,000 students with an annual budget of $249 million.

During Dr. Sam Shaw's tenure, NAIT opened the state-of-the-art NAIT HP Centre for Information and Communications Technology, ran a successful $24 million campaign, has grown into the number one apprenticeship trainer in Canada and most recently, announced a 10-year, multi-million dollar campus expansion plan.

He is most proud of NAIT's 127,000 alumni who are getting the job done in Alberta and around the world.
