Greg D'Avignon
President and Chief Executive Officer
Business Council of British Columbia (BCBC)

Greg D'Avignon is the President and CEO of the Business Council of BC, a 260-member driven policy and advocacy organization comprised of the province's leading businesses in every sector of the provincial economy and BC's post-secondary institutions that collectively employ 25 percent of the province's labour force.

A fourth generation British Columbian, for 25 years Mr. D'Avignon has held senior private and public sectors leadership positions including serving the Prime Minister of Canada, and the federal Ministers of National Defence and Justice.

Greg is the immediate past-Chair of the BC Cancer Foundation and former Chair of the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation. Greg is a current member of the Board of the YMCA of Greater Vancouver, the Premier's Aboriginal Business Investment Council and a Board Member of the BC Academic Health Science Network.

In 2013, Greg received the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal.
